

AKONKWA MIHIGO GISELE

---

Current student in Master of Science in Renewable Energy at the University of Rwanda, College of Science and Technology African Center of Excellence in Energy for Sustainable Development (ACE-ESD)

AKONKWA MIHIGO GISELE is a student in Master of Science in Renewable Energy at the University of Rwanda, College of Science and Technology African Center of Excellence in Energy for Sustainable Development (ACE-ESD). She is in Mobility for Innovative Renewable Energy Technologies (MIRET) credit and seeking a master's scholarship program for Research. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering, Mechanical Engineering from the University of Rwanda, College of Science and Technology. GISELE has 6 years of experience in many areas such as administrative engineering, maintenance, business, and Energy. She has been trained in Renewable energy by Kist-Ewsa, Training in plumbing by WDA, Training in climate change and Energy transition by Total Energy Professional associates, and training in start your business by BDF. She is a hard-working woman, and she likes always to learn and improve her skills.